the South Atlantic squadron, left Tangier to-day for Gibraltar. It is assumed here that the vessel has gone to the British port merely to get mail and fresh provisions for the squadron.

The two cities are only about thirty miles apart. There were no fresh developments in the Perdicaris case made known to-day. Rear-Admiral Chadwick and his fleet of seven warships await the result of the diplomatic pressure now being exerted upon the Suitan of Morocco by the representatives of Great Britain. France and the United States to secure the release of Perdicaris and his stepson, Varley.

Perdicaris.

(By Associated Press.)

TANGIER, MOROCCO, June 2.—The Italian third-class cruiser Dogala arrived here to-day. A delegation of chiefs of the Agerra tribe has left here to make a personal appeal to Raisuli, the bandit chief, to release Perdicaris and Varley, "in order to prevent the debarkment and occupation of Morocco by foreigners opposing the Moslem faith and the expulsion of native Mohammed hand."

This mission is considered important, as the Mohammedan chiefs unite in appealing to Raisuli not to endanger their religious supremacy in Morocco.

The French government relies much upon the appeal to Mohammedan sentiment. The natives are greatly excited by the arrival of so many foreign warships. They call all foreigners "Roumis." meaning infidels, and they fear the Roumis are about to make a united effort to drive out those, who are of the Mohammedan faith.

Rear-Admiral Jewell and United States Consul-General Gummere visited the representative of the Sultan, Mohammed El Torres, at noon, and were saluted by the town Dattery, Mohammed returned the visit at the consulate, the flagship Olympia firing a salute in his honor. Admiral Jewell subsequently called on the British minister.

State Senator Sears Has Made

No Canvass for Elector.

Senator J. Boyd Sears, of Mathews county, who arrived in the city last night, will remain over until to-day. He expressed appreciation of the unsolicited suggestion of himself by the press for the position of elector at large, and stated that while he was not a candidate for the place in the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it cannot be him.

Mr. Sears is the only East Virginia mentioned for the place. He is an attractive and forceful speaker and if chosen for the place in the sense that had not received speaker and if chosen for the place in the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it for the place in the sense that had sought or was seeking it. He more if it cannot be into the place in the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the place. The place is the place in the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it, he would appreciate the honor all the more if it is the more if it is the sense that had sought or was seeking it in the sense that had sought or was seeking it.
